

ROWING REMEMBERS PATRICK CONVEY...

Patrick Convey was involved in rowing in Nova Scotia for over a decade. He was an accomplished athlete and coach at the North Star Rowing Club and Mic Mac Rowing Club, a member of the Nova Scotia Rowing Association's Board of Directors and most recently a coach with the Dalhousie Rowing Club.

Patrick had many athletic achievements including Henley Gold in the 2006 Senior B (Under 23) Lightweight Pair and the 2007 Senior B (Under 23) Lightweight Double. Patrick was selected as a finalist for Team of the Year in 2007 and 2008 by Sport Nova Scotia's Provincial IKON Awards. He was also recognized as Nova Scotia Rowings' Male Athlete of the Year in 2007. Patrick represented Nova Scotia at the 2001 Canada Summer Games in London, Ontario and the 2005 Canada Summer Games in Regina, Saskatchewan. He won many local events including the 150th Cogswell Medal Race on the North West Arm in 2008.

THE PATRICK CONVEY MEMORIAL FUND:

In 2010, the Nova Scotia Rowing Association along with Patrick's family and friends set up the Patrick Convey Memorial Fund in recognition of his passion for rowing and to continue his legacy of encouraging young rowers to achieve excellence. This fund, in conjunction with Patrick's family and Nova Scotia Rowing, is administered by the National Sport Trust Fund – Nova Scotia Chapter. Each year a deserving athlete is awarded a sport scholarship in Patrick's memory to support them with their rowing endeavors.
